

UR Beginning 2.0

<https://www.uregina.ca/orientation/urb/index.html>

URB 2.0's are mini UR Beginning events for new students to register for Fall courses and introduce them to the University of Regina! These are afternoon sessions that you can attend instead of UR Beginning! 2017 if you need. They include the following:

- Welcome sessions
- Advising & Course Registration
- Parent sessions
- Campus tours, bookstore visits, get your student ID!

Registration is open for the following dates:

Tuesday, June 13 - 5:00 pm - 7:30 pm

Friday, July 14 - 12:30 pm - 4:30 pm

Not all Faculties are participating in the URB 2.0 events. If your faculty is not offering a session, you will need to contact them directly to book a one-on-one academic advising appointment.

Please note that students only need to attend one course registration event! You can choose to attend either UR Beginning! on May 5 or one of these URB 2.0 events. If you cannot attend any, each faculty will provide additional options!

Summer Bridge Program

<https://www.uregina.ca/student/ssc/summerbridge.html>

Are you nervous about starting classes in the fall? Do you wonder if your academic skills are good enough for university? Would you like to meet other students before classes start in the fall? Do you want to complete your English 100 course early, in a supportive environment, so you can focus on your other classes in the fall? Then the University of Regina Summer Bridge Program is for you!

This program will give new students a chance to experience the University of Regina campus before the fall semester starts, and will give them an opportunity to develop their academic skills before taking on a full-load of classes. The program incorporates academics, university preparation, and social activities to prepare students to be successful at the University of Regina.

The Basics:

1. The program will run August 8-29.
2. Components include:
 - English 100 (accepted for 3.0 hours of credit in all U of R programs). Some pre-reading will be required.
 - Non-credit programming to help you develop academic skills and prepare for university
 - Tentative topics include:
 - Academic writing, spelling/grammar, academic integrity, citations, research, academic communication, university expectations and policies, technology training, note taking, exam preparation, time management, study plans, procrastination, and stress management.
 - Social activities to help you meet other students and explore the university and the city
 - Tentative social activities may include:
 - Guides tours of campus, movie nights, bowling, laser tag, cooking nights, and social events offered in Regina during the month of August
 - An option to live in U of R Residences

Cost:

Tuition and course fees for English 100	Approx. $850 for domestic students/ $1,974 for International students* *Based on 2016/17 tuition. Subject to change.
Non-credit programming and social activities	$500
Books	Approx $75-125
Residence	$750 for students living in Residence in fall $800 for those staying for August only Meal Plan is optional

Benefits:

- Complete your English 100 course in a supportive environment with built in study partners and a writing lab component
- Take part in academic workshops that will equip you with the skills necessary to succeed in university
- Take one less course in your first semester
- Get to know other students and the university
- Understand university expectations and policies
- Become a member of the UR Guarantee Program

Schedule:

Your day will look something like this:

8:30-11:30 - Workshops/coaching session/writing lab

11:30-12:30 - Lunch break

12:30-3:30 - English 100

3:30-7:00 - Independent study/personal time and dinner break

7:00-9:00 - Optional group activity, outing, or study session

On the weekends you might want to explore Regina with your new friends, or schedule some group study time. We may offer some optional weekend social events if there is interest.

Apply

Apply by June 15, 2017 to guarantee your spot! All newly admitted University of Regina students are eligible for the program. However, there are a limited number of seats available so apply now! When we process your application we will also register you in English 100 and the non-credit course.
